

ADVENTIST MISSION

2013 • QUARTER 3 • INTER-EUROPEAN DIVISION

More than 338 million people live in the countries of the Inter-European Division. About 177,750 are Seventh-day Adventists, making a ratio of about one Adventist for every 1,900 people.

Church members throughout the region are seeking ways to capture the attention of the people with the love of God. Some are operating a community center to give clothing, food, and household goods to the needy. Others are helping reach university students through seminars, retreats, and social gatherings just for them. And when a receptive individual or group of people expresses interest, members band together to worship and nurture.

These outreach programs cost money. Sometimes those least able to pay are making the greatest difference in others' lives. And we can help.
