

AGUSTIN GALICIA

Associate Secretary

Agustin Galicia, a Mexican by birth, served the Church for 32 years in the Inter-American Division before he was elected as an associate secretary of the General Conference in July 2000. He has been a pastor, departmental director, and local field and union president. For ten years he served as secretary of the Inter-American Division.

His hobbies are reading and travel, he speaks Spanish and English.

Galicia is married to Eucaris M. Guerra and they have four children, Eucaris L, a designer at Pacific Press Publishing Association, Dacyl, principal of Indianapolis Jr. Academy, Agustin, an accountant, and Joel, a student.

As an associate secretary, Galicia's responsibilities include assisting the Church in recruiting missionaries and dealing with issues that involve interdivision employees and representing the General Conference at various meetings and church-related functions. In addition, his office serves as the liaison for the General Conference and the Inter-American, North American, South American, and Southern Asia divisions.