

HARALD WOLLAN

Associate Secretary

Harald Wollan is a Norwegian citizen, but he was born in Asmara, Eritrea to missionary parents. He received his elementary and secondary education in Norway and he later studied in Denmark as well as at Newbold College in the United Kingdom.

Before coming to the General Conference World Headquarters, Wollan served as a pastor in Norway and Denmark, a Bible teacher at Konola Academy in Liberia, a departmental director in Norway and Denmark, a conference secretary and president in Norway, union president in Bangladesh, and as the Trans-European Division Secretary.

As an associate secretary, Wollan serves as the liaison officer to the Inter-European and Southern Asia-Pacific divisions as well as the Middle East and North Africa Union Mission and Israel Field, assisting in recruiting and dealing with issues that involve interdivision employees.

Harald is married to Anne-May, who for 10 years served as director for Children's and Women's ministries at the Trans-European Division, as well as for ministry to clergy families. Harald and Anne-May have a son, a daughter, and 6 granddaughters back in Norway.
